Choosing a professional course is one of the most defining decisions a student can make — one that shapes not just a career, but a mindset. Over the past 22 years, Take One School of Mass Communication has grown with the dynamic world of media, consistently evolving to meet its demands.

Today, with digital platforms reshaping how stories are told and consumed, our mission remains unchanged: to equip students with real-world skills, sharp thinking, and the confidence to thrive in this fast-paced industry.

Time at TOS moves fast — and it should. Our job is to make every moment count, ensuring it's a productive, meaningful, and transformative experience. Whether it's journalism, filmmaking, PR, or digital media, our programs are designed to prepare you not just for a job, but for a voice in the global conversation.

I hope this brochure gives you a clear picture of what we stand for and what we offer. We look forward to welcoming you — and watching you grow into our next success story.

TIMES OF INDIA (TOI+) PARTNERS WITH TAKE ONE SCHOOL OF MASS COMMUNICATION

Take One School of Mass Communication (TOSMC) proudly announces its collaboration with Times of India (TOI+) as its official knowledge and media partner. This strategic partnership, formalized under a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), aims to foster industry-academia synergy by sharing and developing content while offering students an unparalleled learning experience with one of India's most prestigious media houses.

Through this collaboration, TOSMC students will benefit from direct mentorship and exposure to real-world journalism and media practices. The partnership will facilitate workshops, live projects, guest lectures, and exclusive internships with the TOI team, enabling students to gain hands-on experience in news reporting, content creation, digital media, and newsroom operations. By integrating academic learning with industry expertise, this collaboration paves the way for aspiring media professionals to build successful careers in the ever-evolving world of journalism and mass communication.

TOI

Film & Theatre Production House

Take One has been at the forefront with regard to the nurturing of a theatre movement in its premises under the guidance of veteran filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt. Under his mentorship, both the students and the faculty worked in tandem to dole out critically acclaimed plays.

Take One is arguably one of the very few theatre and arts societies in Delhi who have members from diversified professions and educational backgrounds.

Encouraged by the acceptance and acknowledgement from the varied audience and eminent theatre personalities, TOSMC is determined to take its productions to various parts of India and abroad to showcase their art. Major Theatrical Production by MFTS under guidance and mentorship of veteran filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt The Last Salute, Trial of Errors, ARTH, DADDY, Hamari Adhuri Kahani and Do Deewane Shaher Mein. Upcoming is Milne Do

Moonlight Films & Theatre Studio

Take One School of Mass Communication has its own audio-visual and theatre production house, Moonlight Films and Theatre Studio, which is registered with the Indian Motion Picture Producers' Association (IMPPA) under Regn No. 17806. Successfully operating for many years, Moonlight Films and Theatre Studio has been actively producing documentary films, corporate films, and TV advertisements for both government and non-government organizations.

Students of Take One School of Mass Communication actively participate in theatre and film productions, gaining hands-on experience in acting, direction, and production. Moonlight Films and Theatre Society, a non-profit organization, is dedicated to promoting theatrical and media arts education. Over the years, it has produced numerous notable theatre plays under the mentorship of renowned filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt, many of which have been presented by him as well.

Moonlight Films and Theatre Studio has also ventured into feature filmmaking, with its much-acclaimed and widely appreciated movie "Ab Dilli Dur Nahin." The film, which received critical acclaim, was successfully released in theatres and is now available on OTT platforms.

INTERNATIONAL Media Workshop

Take One School of Mass Communication, in association with eminent TV and Radio Channel of Dubai, proudly introduced the UAE's first-ever media communication workshop in 2007 under the visionary guidance of Director Imran Zahid. This groundbreaking initiative provided aspiring media professionals with a platform to refine their skills in news reading and anchoring, offering insights from industry stalwarts like political reporter Yusuf Ansari, film critic Pankaj Shukla, and esteemed news anchors from leading Indian channels, including Ved Prakash, Ambika Bakshi, and Sayeed Ansari. Adding to the prestige, RJ Sikandar of "Voice of Dubai" shared his expertise, while special guests like film actor Emraan Hashmi, director Mohit Suri, filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt, and India TV chairman Rajat Sharma enriched the event with their experiences.

Continuing its legacy of excellence, Take One School of Mass Communication successfully hosted an exclusive 5-day acting workshop in Dubai in December 2024, further empowering aspiring actors. Led by celebrated professionals such as casting director Shiv Chauhan and actors Danish Iqbal and Imran Zahid, the workshop covered vital aspects like acting techniques, camera presence, voice modulation, and body movement. The program culminated in an inspiring masterclass by renowned actress and filmmaker Pooja Bhatt, who shared invaluable insights into the entertainment industry. With an overwhelmingly positive response, the institution remains dedicated to fostering talent and looks forward to organizing more transformative workshops in the future.

Celebrating Excellence in Journalism:

A Moment of Pride for Take One School of Mass Communication

The Ramnath Goenka Excellence in Journalism Awards (RNG Awards) are among the most coveted honors in Indian journalism, instituted in 2006 by the Ramnath Goenka Memorial Foundation. These prestigious awards recognize journalists who uphold the highest standards of courage, integrity, and dedication to the core principles of journalism.

Organized annually by The Indian Express Group, the awards span 13 diverse categories, from investigative journalism and politics to environment, sports, business, and regional language reporting. The recipients are chosen by a distinguished jury comprising eminent members of the judiciary, academia, and media.

The 18th edition, held on March 19, 2024, in New Delhi, was graced by Union Minister Nitin Gadkari. The following year, at the 19th edition in March 2025, President Droupadi Murmu attended as chief guest, reinforcing the awards' importance in promoting journalistic integrity and democratic values. A total of 27 journalists were recognized across categories, highlighting the growing scope and impact of fearless journalism in India.

Congratulations to both! You make Take One School of Mass Communication proud.

At Take One School of Mass Communication, we are incredibly proud to celebrate the outstanding achievements of our esteemed alumnus, Mahender Singh Manral, Assistant Editor at The Indian Express. His remarkable feat of winning the Ramnath Goenka Award for excellence in journalism in both 2024 and 2025, alongside the prestigious Princess Rashir Award in 2024, is a testament to his integrity, tenacity, and commitment to impactful storytelling.

In 2024, Mahender was recognized in the Sports Journalism category for his powerful story on boxer Deepak Pahal and his shocking descent into the world of crime—an eye-opening report that combined sports reporting with investigative depth. In 2025, he was again honored for his in-depth coverage of the protests and events following the chargesheeting of Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh in the sexual harassment case, highlighting his sustained commitment to reporting on issues of national significance.

We also extend our heartfelt congratulations to Princess Giri Rashir, who was honored with the Ramnath Goenka Award for Excellence in Journalism in the Broadcast category for her compelling coverage of Environment, Science, and Technology. Her acclaimed East Mojo documentary, "Choking amid coking: Meghalaya coke factories leave no room to breathe", brought national attention to the devastating effects of coke factories in East Jaintia Hills and West Khasi Hills districts of Meghalaya. Through powerful investigative journalism, she shed light on the serious health and environmental hazards affecting local communities.

The achievements of Mahender Singh Manral and Princess Giri Rashir exemplify the kind of fearless, socially conscious journalism we strive to foster. Their work continues to inspire our entire academic community and reaffirm the vital role of ethical journalism in a democratic society.
